

REQUIRED ITEMS LIST

Welcome aboard!!

As a convenience to our clients we have created this list of the minimum of items you need to bring on your Mag Bay Tours expedition.

Remember you will be on a remote desert island, so anything "special" you need you will have to bring with you. Your favorite snack food; trail mix, energy bars, cookies, etc.

FOR ALL CLIENTS IN CAMP

- Your passport (don't leave home without it)
- Extra cash (you're a long way from home)
- A "headlamp" type flashlight and spare batteries
- A bed sheet (twin or double) and pillow case
- Bathing towels
- A small, personal First Aid Kit
- Spanish/English Dictionary
- Personal toilet paper
- Toiletries: Soap shampoo, toothbrush, toothpaste, etc.
- A large sun hat
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen High SPF and water resistant (clear Aloe Gator)
- Insect repellent rarely needed, but you might
- A light Jacket and a pair of long pants; The desert can get cool at night.
- Sandals/Tevas/Reefwalkers/Aquasocks any footwear that can get wet repeatedly
- One (or more) large, contractor-quality plastic bags for each piece of
- luggage that you don't want to get wet
- Any prescription medicines you may need
- A dry bag for cameras or electronics
- A good sharp pocket knife (put in Check-in luggage).

FOR DAY TRIP WHALE WATCHERS

- Your passport (don't leave home without it)
- Extra cash and credit card (you're a long way from home)
- Spanish/English Dictionary
- A large sun hat
- Sunglasses

SUGGESTED ITEMS

- We have 110 volt and 12 volt charging capabilities at base camp.
 - Video Camera w/ output cables to RCA inputs on our TV (watch the days footage !)
 - Digital still camera
 - Music CDs , Ipod w/ output Y cable (we have a stereo system)
 - Cell phone (check with your service provider to coverage in our area of BCS, Mexico)
 - Reading materials
 - Hiking boots or tennis shoes
 - A day pack
 - Your favorite snack food; trail mix, energy bars, cookies, etc.
 - Your favorite wines
 - Soy sauce and wasabi
 - Fishing and snorkeling gear
 - Saltwater Soap" (found at many boating and camping stores.)
 - Foul weather gear for winter and spring trips
- ### SURFERS
- Travelers ding repair kit
 - Proper wet suit protection, rash guard, booties and a light 1mm hood if needed
 - Amphibious eye wear --www.spexusa.com
 - Extra towel

FOR ANGLERS

- All the tackle you think you might need as there are no tackle shops on the island
- A Mexican fishing license

FOR YOUR BOAT

- A Mexican fishing license for every person aboard
 - 300 feet of anchor line
 - Anchor Chain equal to the length of the boat
 - An anchor line buoy is a good idea too!
 - At least one spare anchor, with line
 - At least one good VHF radio, Two are better.
- The camp monitors channel 18